

Bob E Thomas, The Dancing Storyteller's

Generations!

Grandma, Vaudeville & Me!

Free and fun for everyone !!

Learning about our history from our elders !!

Bob E. Thomas knows history! A nationally known dancer and performer, he's learned much of what he knows from older storytellers and dancers. In Generations he tells of his grandmother, a consummate storyteller, and Joe Stirling, a 1930's Vaudeville tap dancer, and how they inspired him.

Bob E. Thomas' "Generations"...

"I enjoyed your sense of history/generations and why kids can understand —more than many people think they can! The finale was wonderful."

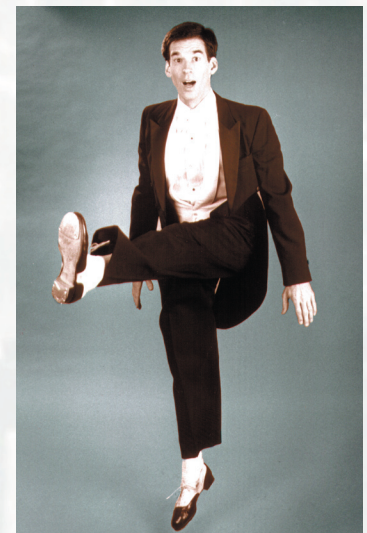

Janet Goodman, Montgomery Library

I especially liked the skillful way in which you accommodated all of the generations in the room. So often, folks feel divided by the "generation gap," but your stories blended the groups perfectly."

Curry Hoskey, Eastham Library

"Thank you so much for your wonderful and energetic "Generations". We all really enjoyed the stories, songs and dancing. I have had so many glowing remarks from children and parents alike."

Elaine Crane, Wilbraham Library

www.bobethomas.com

THIS PROJECT IS SUPPORTED IN PART BY

MASSACHUSETTS CULTURAL COUNCIL

This program is sponsored by your Local Cultural Council, a local agency; the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency; and the National Endowment for the Arts.